

Scholarship Created to Celebrate the Life of Dorothy Johnson Shei

In celebration of the life and memory of Dorothy Johnson Shei, her family has recently created a scholarship through the Starke County Community Foundation. Shei was born and raised in Knox, and was a Knox High School graduate.

As a way of giving back to give back to Starke County and helping students attain their educational goals, her family created the Dorothy Johnson Shei Scholarship. Students eligible for the scholarship must meet the following criteria:

- Be a qualified student graduating from Knox High School
- Have lived in Starke County, IN for at least four years during his/her high school career
- Are deserving of financial assistance
- Are likely to succeed at an Indiana accredited college or university.

The scholarship will be available for the first time to the graduating class of 2007. Scholarship applications are available at Knox High School. More information about this and other scholarships is available through the Community Foundation.

Since 1997, Starke County Community Foundation has brought caring people and charitable endeavors together for the good of the community. The Community Foundation is a public charity, and gifts made to the Foundation are tax-deductible. For more information about the Community Foundation visit www.nicf.org, or call 574-772-3665.
